| Outlet Matrix

Delegates represent the following international news organisations, press agencies, and media outlets. The matrix spans wire agencies, broadcast networks, digital-native publications, and print media from across the world, reflecting the full spectrum of global journalistic voices. Delegates are expected to study their outlet's editorial policy, geopolitical orientation, reporting style, and historical coverage of UN-related affairs. Photographers and Caricaturists will be allocated as per the ratio determined by the Executive Board. Not all listed outlets will necessarily be allotted — the final committee strength and assignments are subject to the sole discretion of the Secretariat.
